

Annapolis, March 7, 1749
WHEREAS, a Report has prevailed in this City, that the Subscriber melted down some Plate (which was lately stolen out of the House of Charles Carroll, Esq.) for a Servant Fellow, generally known by the Name of the Jew Taylor; and moreover, that the said Subscriber intended to turn Evidence against the said Servant. Now this is to inform the Public, that the said Report is entirely false, and without Foundation; and probably calculated by some malicious ill-designing Person, to asperse the Character of the said Subscriber; who hereby declares himself wholly ignorant of the above Affair.
